

Story of Neha

Neha, a young girl of 14 is a student of class 9 of Noapara Girls' High School, Noapara. She was a poor girl but had an aspiration to help her family for a better life. On her way to school a boy named Alam used to tease her very often. But she did not get frustrated rather she tried her best to overcome the problem.

At first, Neha wanted to speak with Alam about the matter and requested him not to disturb her any more. But Alam did not pay any heed to her rather he became more arrogant. Neha informed her parents about her problem. Her parents got afraid because Alam was a son of political leader and could any harm to her so they decided to discontinue her study and marry her off. Neha did not want to marry then but pursue her study. But she did not understand what to do. No finding any way, she shared the matter with her classmates and the headmaster. The headmaster of her school called a meeting of the teachers and the members of the school committee to find a way out of her problem. They decided that they would discuss the matter with the guardian of Alam. According to decision, they went to his father and told him about the problem in detail.

Alam's father called Alam and convinced him the bad impact of eve teasing and informed him about the existing law of eve teasing. Alam's father did not support his son. At last Alam realized his fault and promised he would never disturb Neha again. Neha got realized from her tension and continued her study as usual as before.

ENGLISH LANGUAGE ZONE
Committed to better teaching